IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Mr. _____

introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on _____

A BILL

To establish a Standing Committee of the Senate on Intelligence Activities, and for other purposes.

(Insert title of bill here)

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Intelligence Oversight Act of 1976".

Sec. 2. It is the purpose of this Act to establish a new standing committee of the Senate to oversee the intelligence activities and programs of the United States Government and to assure that the appropriate departments and agencies of the United States Government provide such timely and useable intelligence as may be necessary to permit the executive and legislative branches of the government to make sound policy decisions regarding the security of the Nation. It is further the purpose of this Act to provide a vigilant legislative oversight of the intelligence activities of the United States in order to assure that such activities are consistent with the constitution and laws of the United States.

To BE BY SENATE RESOLUTION (§§ 4-12)

Sec. 3. Sections 4 through 12 and section 16 of yhis Act are enacted--

(1) as an exercise of the rulemaking power of the Senate, and as such they shall be considered as part of the rules of the Senate, and such rules shall supersede other rules only to the extent that they are inconsistent therewith; and

(2) with full recognition of the constitutional right of the Senate to change such rules at any time, in the same manner, and to the same extent as in the case of any other rule of the Senate.

Sec. 4. Rule XXIV of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph as follows:

"3. (a) Five members of the Committee on Intelligence Activities shall be appointed by the majority leader of the Senate and four shall be appointed by the minority leader of the Senate.

"(b) No Senator may serve on the Committee on Intelligence Activities for more than six years.

"(c) At the beginning of each Congress, the members of the Committee on Intelligence Activities appointed by the majority leader shall select a chairman and the members of such committee appointed by the minority leader shall select a vice chairman. The vice chairman shall act in the place and stead of the chairman in the absence of the chairman."

Sec. 5. (a) Subparagraph (d) 1 of paragraph 1 of rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended by striking out the period at the end of such subparagraph and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the following: "except matters described in subparagraphs (s) (1) and (2)."

(b) Subparagraph (i) 1 of paragraph 1 of rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended by striking out the period at the end of such paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the following: "except matters described in subparagraphs (s) (1) and (2))."

(c) Subparagraph (X) 9 of paragraph 1 of rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended by striking out the comma after the word "espionage" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "(except matters described in subparagraphs (s) (1) and (2),".

Sec. 6. (a) Paragraph 1 of rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(s) (1) Committee on Intelligence Activities, to which committee shall be referred all proposed legislation, messages, petitions, memorials, and other matters relating to the following:

"(A) The Central Intelligence Agency.

"(B) Intelligence activities of all other departments and agencies of the Government, including, but not limited to, the intelligence activities of the Defense Intelligence Agency, the National Security Agency, and other agencies of the Department of Defense; the Department of Justice; the Department of State; and the Department of the Treasury.

"(C) The organization or reorganization of any department or agency of the Government to the extent that the organization or reorganization relates to a function or activity involving national intelligence or domestic intelligence.

"(D) Authorizations for appropriations for the following:

"(i) The Central Intelligence Agency.

"(ii) The Defense Intelligence Agency.

"(iii) The National Security Agency.

"(iv) The national intelligence activities carried out by the Department of Defense.

"(v) Intelligence activities of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

"(vi) The intelligence activities of any successor departments or agencies to those departments and agencies named in this subclause."

BY SENATE RESOLUTION

(b) Paragraph 3 of rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended by inserting

"Intelligence Activities ----- 9."

"District of Columbia ----- 7."

(c) Paragraph 6 of rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

"(i) For the purposes of this paragraph, service of a Senator as a member of the Committee on Intelligence Activities shall not be taken into account."

Sec. 7. The Committee on Intelligence Activities of the Senate shall make regular and periodic reports to the Senate on the nature and extent of the intelligence activities of the various departments and agencies of the United States. Such reports may be presented in closed session of the Senate if the committee deems such action necessary and appropriate for reasons of national security.

Sec. 8. The Committee on Intelligence Activities of the Senate shall formulate and carry out such rules and procedures as it may deem necessary to prevent ^{(1) THE} disclosure, outside such committee, ~~not authorized by such committee~~ of any information in the possession of or obtained by such committee relating to the activities of the Central Intelligence Agency or any other department or agency of the United States engaged in intelligence activities, ^{NDT AUTHORIZED BY SUCH COMMITTEE, AND} ~~and~~

Sec. 9. ^{ADD 8(CB)} (a) ~~No person may be employed as a professional staff member of the Committee on Intelligence Activities of the Senate or be engaged by contract or otherwise to perform services for such committee for a period totaling more than six years.~~

(a) No employee of such committee or any person engaged by contract or otherwise to perform services for such committee shall be given access to any classified information by such committee unless such employee or person has received an appropriate security clearance as determined by such committee. The type of security clearance to be required in the case of any such employee or person

Sec. 10. The Committee on Intelligence of the Senate shall ~~INSTITUTE~~ formulate and carry out such rules and procedures as it deems ~~THE DISCLOSURE, OUTSIDE THE COMMITTEE~~ necessary to prevent the disclosure, without the consent of the person or persons concerned, of information in the possession of such committee which infringes upon the privacy or constitutional rights of such person or persons. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent such committee from publicly disclosing any such information in any case in which such committee determines the public interest in the disclosure of such information clearly outweighs any infringement on the privacy of any person or persons

Sec. 11. (a) The Committee on Intelligence Activities of the Senate may, after full and considered consultation with appropriate officials of the Executive Branch, disclose to the public any information received by it from the President or Vice President or any department or agency of the United States upon the committee's determination that the public interest would be served by such disclosure. In any case in which such committee decides to make public any information requested ^{to be kept confidential} by the President, Vice President, or the head of a department or agency, as the case may be, such committee shall notify the President to that effect. Such committee may publicly disclose such information after the expiration of ten days following the day on which notice is transmitted to the President unless prior to the expiration of such ten-day period the President submits a written certification to such committee stating that the public interest in the disclosure of such information is clearly outweighed by the probability of ~~grave~~ harm to the national security.

(b) If after timely receipt of a certification by the President made pursuant to subsection (a), the Committee on Intelligence Activities determines that such information should be publicly disclosed, such committee shall refer the question of disclosure of such information to the Senate, ~~for such action as the Senate deems appropriate.~~ need affirmative vote

(c) Any question referred to the Senate by the Committee on

The President's certification will determine whether the information will be made public, unless a 2/3rds majority of the Senate overrules such determination.
